MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Friday Morning Briefings at Executive Committee Meetings

REFERENCE : Memo dtd 13 Sep 66 fr DD/S, same subject

1. This memorandum contains information for the Deputy Director for Support.

2. We note in paragraph 1 of the reference that in all likelihood "... the Support Services will not likely have the opportunity of a presentation more than once a month." Accordingly, we have selected for your consideration only a minimum number of items, but we have been guided by the selection of topics which we believe have the greatest overall interest for the audience, including the Director of Central Intelligence.

3. Appropriate topics, which appear to be of general interest and also tend to portray substantive and significant responsibility of the Support Directorate, are:

a. The significance of the Logistics contribution to Southeast Asia in fiscal year 1966.

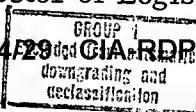

b. A description of the facilities to be installed and the benefits to be gained from the new Printing Services Building.

c. A description of the extent of the overall ordnance program conducted by the Office of Logistics.

4. We will be most happy to prepare specific briefing papers and aids for you should you desire to select any of the above three subjects. We will further, from time to time, submit additional recommendations.

George E. Meron
Director of Logistics

SUBJECT : Friday Morning Briefings at Executive Committee Meetings

1. The Director wishes to have briefings on topics of general interest presented at his Executive Committee Meetings. It is expected that these briefings will be scheduled on Friday mornings at 0900 and since all Directors will be included the Support Services will not likely have the opportunity of a presentation more than once a month.
2. It is requested that you prepare a list of topics which you feel would be of general interest to the Director and members of his Executive Committee. Things that affect large numbers of employees, as well as the Executive Committee members, are likely topics--for example, our insurance program and other employee benefits.
3. Please give me a note with a list of suggested topics by noon, 19 September. Time permitting, we will discuss some of the topics at the staff meeting on the 20th.
